

Flying Commas Crossword

Time: 20 minutes

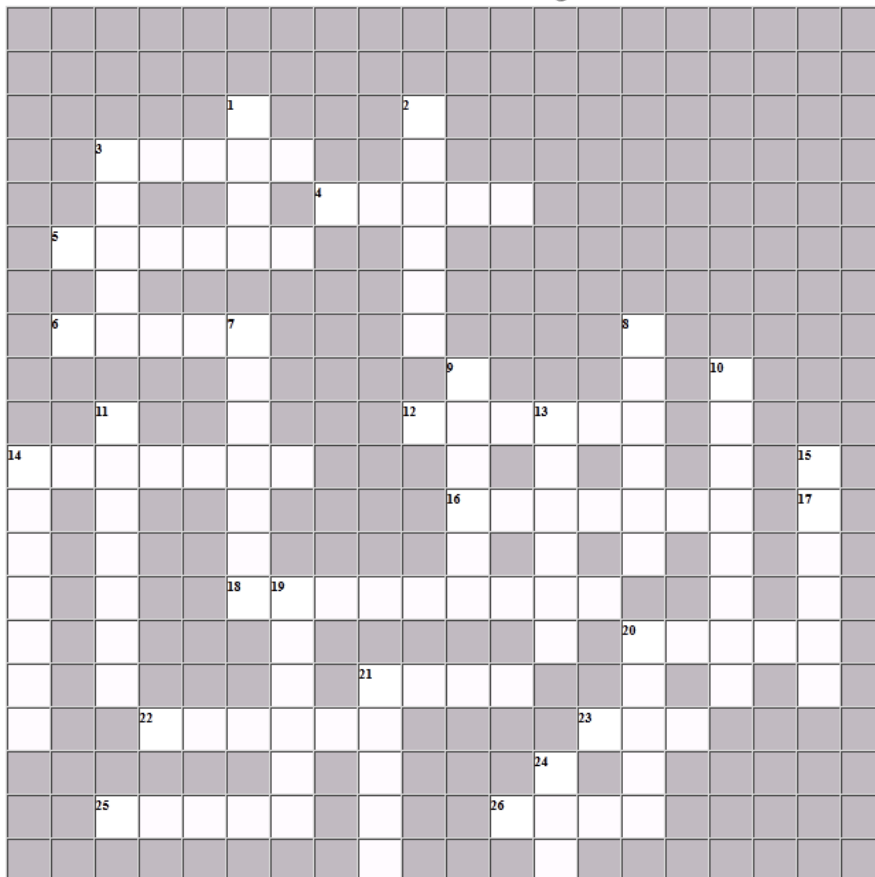

Number of players: 1

Solving this crossword will help your child to practice using apostrophes (or 'flying commas', as dyslexic children often prefer to call them).

In this crossword, you have to spell the contraction: shorten the words in the clue to make a new one. When writing in the contraction, the apostrophe takes up a whole space.

Free activities, games and worksheets: www.defeat-dyslexia.com

Credit: crossword grid created using EdCreate.com

Crossword clues

Free activities, games and worksheets: www.defeat-dyslexia.com

Down

- 1) I will
- 2) are not
- 3) who is or who has
- 7) there is or there has
- 8) has not
- 9) that would or that had
- 10) could not
- 11) were not
- 13) that is or that has
- 14) they have
- 15) she will
- 17) he will
- 19) had not
- 20) we are
- 21) it will
- 24) I would or I had

Across

- 3) who would or who had
- 4) she would or she had
- 5) you will
- 6) is not
- 12) what is or what has
- 14) they are
- 16) that will
- 18) should not
- 20) we will
- 21) it is or it has
- 22) was not
- 23) I am
- 25) cannot
- 26) I have